What We Take and Where It Goes

Paper for shredding

Office paper, mail, other personal paper documents, magazines, books in poor condition

Documents are securely shredded and recycled by ASDD Document Destruction, a branch of the Tempe nonprofit, the Centers for Habilitation, which provides support and opportunities for people with physical and developmental disabilities.

Household hazardous waste

Pool chemicals, toilet bowl cleaner, oven cleaner, lye, insecticides, herbicides, latex paint, oil based paints and stains, acetone (nail polish remover), paint thinners, glue, automotive oil and antifreeze, soaps, waxes, CFL bulbs, batteries, over-the-counter medication

Eighty-six to ninety-three percent of the hazardous materials collected are reused or recycled locally, regionally or nationally. Some products are redistributed to Tempe residents for free at the Household Products Collection Center.

Electronics and computer equipment

Working or non-working items accepted. PCs, laptops, monitors, power cords, printers, cabling, mice, keyboards, hard drives, tablets, cell phones, printer cartridges, calculators, stereos, VCRs, TVs, power strips

All items are recycled by eGreen IT Solutions, an e-Steward Certified electronics recycling company in the valley.

Clothing, furniture, household items and appliances

Clothing, shoes, purses, belts, bedding, towels, toys, stuffed animals, books, cooking accessories, furniture, home décor, housewares, jewelry, tools, musical instruments, sports equipment, appliances, motorized tools (empty of gas).

Sold for reuse and recycled by Goodwill of Central and Northern Arizona which diverted over 140 million pounds of material from the landfill through reuse and recycling in 2016.

Tires

Automobile tires are accepted. No bicycle or truck tires.

Tires are taken to the Southeast Waste Tire Collection Site run by the Maricopa County Waste Resources & Recycling Department and recycled into many items including crumb rubber, which is used in asphalt.

Scrap metal

Copper wire and tubing, steel, aluminum, cast aluminum, brass, brass shells, wire scrap

Sims Metal Management in Phoenix currently recycles all scrap metal for the City of Tempe.
